The Power, Spirit and Possibility of Place

Workplace Resource is a leading provider of workplace environment solutions, products and services. We are the top source for the industry's most innovative and inspiring brands.

Workplace Resource opened a new Central Park space and LoDo space in 2015. The innovative spaces allow us to better serve our clients and the A&D community in technology rich, highly visible and constantly evolving work spaces.

We are a Woman-Owned Business under the direction of President and CEO Carla Dore. Our status as an independent dealer enables us to offer even more value, creativity, flexibility and opportunity to our clients, partners and suppliers – all while continuing to leverage the legacy, innovation, uncompromising quality, national network and world-class resources of our Herman Miller roots.

Workplace Resource is the region's only Herman Miller Certified Dealer, offering the highest quality products including Canvas, Aeron, Eames Classics, Embody and Mirra 2 at a great price point. Herman Miller is based in Holland, Michigan and is proud to report more than 85% domestic sourcing for all of its products.

Our Encore Services Division offers a broad range of furniture and facilities support services, including furniture reconfiguration, move management, comprehensive cleaning services (including blinds), warehousing, furniture repair and ergonomic evaluation.

The Possibilities of Place

The power, spirit and possibility of any workplace begins with offering a range of product solutions that support your vision, goals and culture. As the region's only Herman Miller Certified Dealer, we are proud to represent the world's most innovative and inspiring range of office furniture products from the industry's leading source of design.
